Jackson Announces For Re-Election

Commissioner Ralph S. Jackson filed Saturday afternoon for re-election to the Town of Tryon Council and made a total of five candidates for board of commissioners. Three are to be elected. The five candidates so far are the present board W. M. Bellew, J. Vernon Hall, R. S. Jackson and newcomers, Claude Fisher and C. M. Eargle. Mr. Jackson joined the council six years ago and has made a name for himself for his firmness in holding to the views he thought best in matters of town government. Dr. E. E. Missildine and J. T. Arledge are the only candidates for mayor. The race is on. The election will be held on May 4, one week from Tuesday.

Blois at Kiwanis

Douglas S. Blois, member of the Tryon-Saluda district school board, who spoke last week at the Rotary club will give the same address on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at the Kiwanis club at Hotel Tryon. He will speak on School Affairs. C. M. Eargle will have charge of the program.

Governors Here, WOW!

Governor E. D. Rivers of Georgia and Governor Clyde Hoey of North Carolina were in Tryon Sunday afternoon on their way to Hendersonville to address the state convention of Woodmen of the World. The North Carolina motorcade met the Georgia governor just before the state line near Tryon.
