

Dr. George Farrand Taylor has returned from a visit to New York and Washington. Mrs. Taylor remained for a longer visit.

Eighteen young people from the Southern Methodist Episcopal church of Oswego, S. C., are enjoying a week's vacation at Leonard's cabins in the Valley, chaperoned by Mrs. J. R. Brown, and the Rev. L. E. Pope, Jr. The class is composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCoy, Mrs. Dick Skinner, Clelia Terry, Allie Louise Baker, Ethlyn Baker, Etta Bell Hegler, Elizabeth White, Elizabeth Mathis, Buford DeBose, Ellis Stanford, Adolph and Ralph Boyce, Jewel Edens and Gertrude Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Boone of Tryon, N. C., are visiting in New York City at the Hotel Algonquin.

Two Texas Rangers, Jack Ballew and LeRoy Gibson of El Paso, Texas, will give a demonstration of rope throwing, Australian bull whip cracking and fire eating at Tryon's Theatre Friday and Saturday afternoons and nights. Adv. 1P
