

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 17, 1937

"Aluminum" Tigers

Three Troynites, who are graduates of Princeton University have gone to Princeton for their class reunions. Louis Stearns, of the class of 1887, for his fiftieth reunion; Edgar C. Rowe of the class of 1902, for his 35th; and Russell Walcott of the class of 1912 for his 25th.

Visitor from India At the Rotary Club

James M. Baker will be in charge of the Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel. The chief speaker will be the Rev. George Bartow Harris, who has spent several years in India. He will speak on some of the elements of the political situation in India.

Lady Astor Says—

"The marriage of Wallis Warfield and the Duke of Windsor was less a romance than a tragedy," Virginia born Lady Nancy Astor, first woman member of the British parliament, asserted on arrival at New York for a visit with relatives in America; but whether it was tragedy for England or the former King Edward, she refused to amplify.

Warnings given by non-strikers of danger ahead. Rioting, beating, kidnaping and bomb-tossing laid to C. I. O. strikers. Others ready to work. Two pickets suffer stabs as vigilantes parade streets under arms.

Teachers, Students, Come Under the Social Security

Students or teachers who take vacation jobs this summer as waiters, musicians, counselors in summer camps or engage in any other employment not specifically excepted by the Social Security Act are workers within the meaning of the old-age benefits provisions of the law, Graham Martin, manager of the Asheville office of the Social Security Board said today.

"Both students and teachers who engage in covered employment during the summer must obtain Social Security Account Numbers. Applications for such numbers may be obtained from the nearest post office or from a Social Security Board office. The information called for on this application form—22-5—is necessary to insure a proper wage record will be established for the applicant. The information will be held confidential," Mr. Martin said.

"A wage record is kept throughout the life of the individual worker until he reaches the age of 65 and retires to receive monthly old-age benefits. To qualify for old-age benefits a worker need not be employed continuously. The wages received during each period of employment from each employer determine the amount of his monthly benefit check, which will go to him as a matter of right when he becomes eligible.

"The youthfulness of a worker
—Continued on Back Page—