

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1937

At the Churches Sunday

PRESBYTERIAN—Tryon, Sunday school, 10 a. m. Evening service united with Methodist. Mr. Vinson, preaching. Columbus, copreaching service 11 a. m. Subject, "A Demonstration." Rev. D. M. McGeachy, Minister.

CATHOLIC—St. John's church. Holy Mass at 8 a. m. Father Florian, Celebrant.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS—11 a. m., at Lanier Library. Subject, "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"

FIRST BAPTIST—11 a. m.: Rev. George Bartow Harris, preaching. Public invited. Sunday school at 10 a. m.

METHODIST — Church school, 10 a. m. The Presbyterian church will join us in a union service on Sunday evening at 8 in the Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Vinson, who is directing our united Vacation Bible school in the Presbyterian church, will preach. Saluda church school 10 a. m. Worship with good music and a sermon on "The Testimony of Holy Scriptures" at 11 a. m. You are cordially invited. Rev. F. O. Dryman, Pastor.

CONGREGATIONAL — Erskine Memorial. Rev. C. Arthur Lincoln, D. D. Minister. Sermon at 11 a. m., by Rev. Arthur C. Brooks of the Asheville school. Sunday school at 9:45, Nelson Jackson, Jr., superintendent.

EPISCOPAL — Church of the Holy Cross. Rev. John A. Pinckney, Rector. Holy Communion 8; Sunday school 10; Morning prayer and sermon 11. Rev. C. P. Burnett, preaching. Sermon theme, "Living Religiously."

"Curb" Reporter

Tryon's Theatre front repainted ivory-cream or something . . . Miss Edith Missildine, associated press correspondent, back at Missildine's after several weeks' illness . . . Judge Thomas E. Brown, lawyer and retired army major, is the newest member of the Tryon Rotary club, making the third major for the Rotary with Sharp and Schilletter . . . Jerry Drew said he waited until it got cool on Long Island before going there; he is missing some nice weather here. Dr. Raymond Dodge said it couldn't be improved on yesterday . . . Scoutmasters and assistants are needed all over Polk county to put across the most important activity that builds character and citizenship. Will you volunteer? . . . Tryon Country club is the scene of nice parties these days for picnics, swimming, tennis and golf . . . Wm. R. "Bill" Jackson, Bertha Lubeck's husband, who became the father of a little girl last week, was in town yesterday scouting for vermiculite in this neighborhood. If you have any of this "vermin" mineral on your place it may bring you some money . . . Harold Nessmith is running Green's Cafe now . . . Wonder who's going to take Hall's place at the Ballenger Co. . . . Town Manager Helms puts somebody on the streets cutting weeds occasionally and it certainly does help the looks of the town. The state lawyers and newspaper men have gone to Bermuda for a week's cruise. Mr. and Mrs. M. R. McCown and Jimmie Massenburg and his girl are in the party. This writer wanted to go awfully bad but he

—Continued on Back Page—