

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1937

"Curb" Reporter

Nearly 800 pounds of paper was carried across the curb this morning to print the Bulletin on . . . Charlie Lynch gave an interesting talk on past Kiwanis history Tuesday and Editor Jim Fain of Hendersonville Times-News, who was present, recalled the long ride from Hendersonville to Tryon the night the local club received its charter. The new road was not built then and travel was via Chimney Rock over dirt roads . . . L. F. Buchanan says there will be plenty of good fish this evening at the Wesley Brotherhood Fish Fry, and the public is invited to come out and buy their fish and take it home if they can't stay . . . Some people ask occasionally if the Bulletin goes out in the country. Well, a man living at the foot of the mountain lost an auto tag a few days ago. He advertised it in the Bulletin and Burley Durham of Landrum found it down in South Carolina . . . The Bulletin travels long distances through the interest of many friends . . . Climbed mountains Wednesday afternoon following Dr. Palmer and Senator Bacon. Beautiful views overlooking Lake Adger. Regan Bradley was guide and showed us a little house way down in the valley where he said he was . . .

W. A. Schilletter to Go To Washington, D. C.

Nelson Jackson, Jr., Vice-president of the Piedmont Boy Scout council and a member of the Executive Board of Region Six, stated Wednesday afternoon that Regional Boy Scout Executive W. A. Dobson had appointed Scoutmaster W. A. Schilletter of Tryon to be a member of the Executive Staff at Washington, D. C., during the National Boy Scout Jamboree, June 30-July 9. The Scouts and leaders in this area will leave Gastonia on Saturday evening, June 26, and will leave Washington on July 9. Tryon will be well-represented in Washington. Scout Executive R. M. Schiele will be there for a few days, Scoutmaster Schilletter, Eagle Scout Nelson Jackson, III., William Elfrink, William Derby, James Jackson and Seth Vining, Jr., will go from Tryon Troop No. 1. They will be joined here by Kerrison Juniper and Floyd Springer of Ormand Beach, Fla., making a total of nine people going from Tryon to the Jamboree. The visit will bear fruit for Scouting in Polk county for years to come.

Rotary Friday, 1 P. M.

The Tryon Rotary club will meet on Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall. W. E. Kilpin will be in charge of the program.

FISH FRY TONIGHT

Buy your fish ready cooked. Drive to Harmon Field, buy plate lunch and take it home if you can't stay.
