

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., JUNE, 30, 1937

"CURB" REPORTER

Short visit with Secretary Kenneth Alton Bowen to the Tryon Country club. The smell of Bon Ami and polished floors, freshly painted chairs and tables. Two ladies are opening the club house for teas. Baxter Haynes walks across the new polished floors with a lot of respect and changes to golf shoes on outside. Nelson Jackson, Jr., drives up and joins him in a round of golf. A dozen kids are having the time of their lives in the swimming pool. Sticking my head thru the locker room window hear a buzzing sound. A spider has caught a fly in its web. A dirt dauber house nearby indicates where the spider will wind up. A lot of old paper and trash around the caddies' bench, but what a day! cool, beautiful, and those greens so pretty—enough to make a fellow an artist or writer, or sumpn' . . . Up and coming hotels have their own publicity department to supply newspapers over the country the names of guests from their cities. It would help a lot if Tryon hotels would just call the Bulletin. . . . Here's a card from the Barbizon Plaza overlooking Central Park, N. Y. It says: "Mrs. Harold W. Crandall" is there, 6-28-37 . . . Card from Charles G. Sewall, Christmas Cove, Me., says that he

—Continued on Back Page—

Closes On Monday At Landrum, S. C.

All the business houses in Landrum will close on Monday, July 5th, in celebration of Independence Day which falls this year on Sunday, July 4th.

Rotary At Lake

The Tryon Rotary club will meet on Friday at 1 p. m., at Lake Lanier Inn with Nelson Jackson, Jr., in charge of the program. Ernest and Miles Mauney, the noted twin pianists of Kings Mt. who are 12 year old Scouts, and are now at Camp on Lake Lanier, will render a musical program and Scout Executive "Bud" Schiele will make a talk.

Scout Trading

Bill Elfrink, who is in the World Jamboree group with Nelson Jackson, III, writes that Scouts from all over the United States are trading souvenirs from their home towns for souvenirs from other places, so 200 copies of the World's Smallest Daily Newspaper is going forward today to B'll for trading purposes with other Scouts. Seth Vining, Jr., is getting his first thrills at seeing big steam boats going up and down the Potomac. All boys report having a good time. Seth, Bill Derby and Jimmy Jackson are in Troop 32 of Shelby. Jimmy says "I think we'll get to see the All-Star ball game."