"CURB" REPORTER

Major Sharp hauled away from the Bulletin office this morning a stack of magazines three feet high for distribution to people in the county who have little reading matter. The pile included Saturday Evening Post, Harpers, Scribner's, Cosmopolitan, Time, Literary Digest, Poultry, Home and Garden, Readers Digest, Ladies Home Journal and a dozen other kinds . . . Tom Costa says there are more olives grown in America than in Spain and more dates than in Africa . . . A car with a California tag on it in front of Builders' Supply. Col. Dan Boone getting material for a swimming pool for little Danny Lightner Boone. It's to be 3 feet high . . . The old town hall is undergoing extensive remodeling for a nice comfortable jail as comfortable as a jail can be . . . A trip to the hospital road. The Town is doing a good deed. Widening the road in a curve below Dr. Jervey's garage. Duke Power Co., going to move a pole out of the way. Jack Ford and Dick Taylor putting in another joint of drain pipe . . . It's almost worth the trouble to get sick just to visit the hospital. Everything so clean and nice. John Ferguson is growing a moustache. Looks architecturish! Ben Fisher, who suffered an accident recently, from a land cave-in is smiling.

Annual Hospital Pilgrimage Set

Thursday, July 8, has been set as date for the annual pilgrimage to the Spartanburg Baby Hospital at Saluda, N. C., it was announced yesterday.

Each member of the hospital board of directors has been asked to bring a car of visitors to the hospital on pilgrimage day. Inspection of the hospital by visitors is scheduled to start at 6 o'clock next Thursday afternoon, to be followed by supper with Dr. D. Lesesne Smith as host to the group.

Members of the committee of the hospital board of directors planning the pilgrimage are J. G. Floyd, chairman, Mrs. S. N. Burts and Mrs. J. N. Groce.

Earlier Services

Rev. John A. Pinckney states that the church service at the Church of the Holy Cross, Episcopal, will begin at 10 a. m., instead of 11 o'clock during the months of July and August.

Holiday For All

Everybody seems to be taking a holiday on Monday, July 5th, in order to give workers a two-day holiday celebration. Nearly everything in Spartanburg has agreed to close, as well as all the nearby cities in this section. All Tryon business houses will be closed including the Bulletin. The drug stores and cafes will serve as usual.
