

Mrs. Caroline Cleavenger and daughter, Miss Betty, of Washington, D. C., are spending several weeks with Mrs. T. J. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bolling Reynolds of New York, who were guests of Mrs. B. King Couper, left Tuesday for Montreat, where they have engaged a cottage for the season.

Miss Margaret Ballew is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Garrett Briggs, in Asheville.

Mrs. Eva Smith and Miss Madelyn Phillips are spending their vacation in Scranton, Pa., and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Nuttall of Lanette, Ala., are guests of Dr. Blanche Elfrink.

HAIR CUTS, 25 cents, at Ballew's Barber Shop. If possible bring your children in week days as we are very busy on Saturdays.—Adv. (h)

University student desires job during summer. James Little. Tryon, N. C.—Adv. 2t. 7, 9c.

This is the season for accidents. For information about personal accident insurance for yourself, wife, son or daughter, see E. Perry Manville, over 5&10c store.—Adv. eod.

DINE WHERE IT'S COOL

TRYON CAFE

A. J. COWAN, JR., MGR.

Regular DINNER.....50c

Special Plate Lunch.....4

SPECIAL

Small PLATE LUNCH
With Choice of Meats...25c

Popular Brands of BEER and ALE

DINE COMFORTABLY !!

All for $1 Each

Automatic Garbage
Pails

Ironing Boards

Beach Chairs

Card Tables

Kitchen Stools

Kitchen Chairs

The Ballenger Co.

TRYON, North Carolina