

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1937

Muncie Thompson

Sandy Plains, July 7.—Muncie Thompson, 47, well-known planter of the Sandy Plains section of Polk county, died early this morning, following a lingering illness.

Surviving are his wife, four sons, Otho, Otis, Vernon and Ernest Thompson; three daughters, Misses Bernice and Ruth Thompson, all at home, and Mrs. J. E. Pettit of Landrum; two brothers, Martin and Charlie Thompson; one sister, Miss Delia Thompson; his mother, Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Rutherfordton, Route 1.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 o'clock Thursday morning at the New Hope Methodist church near Chesnee with the Rev. R. D. Byrd, former pastor; the Rev. C. E. Crowder and the Rev. Mr. Epley officiating.

Active pallbearers were Charlie Stockton, Glenn Lawter, Finch Bowyer, Troy Durham, Luther Scoggins and Robert Morris.

Honorary pallbearers were Geo. Gilbert, Robert Gilbert, John Greenway, E. K. Kimbrell, Arthur Whitesides and Norman Brannon.

Dance Friday

Tenny Freck's orchestra will furnish the music for a dance at Sunnydale Log Cabin Friday evening. The patronage of Tryon dancers is needed to keep Sunnydale open during the summer for dancing.

Rotary Friday

The Rotary club will meet at 1 p. m., Friday at Lake Lanier Inn. H. L. Shelnett in charge of program.

"CURB" REPORTER

Among the North Carolina women mentioned in "American Women" the Who's Who of the feminine gender are Helen H. Roberts of Tryon and Bertha P. Newell of Salisbury, Mary L. Porter of Raleigh . . . Women are taking a bigger part in world affairs and there's hope no matter what you think of Miss Perkins. The better ones are making life richer . . . There are many fine women in Polk county, but if we had to name the No. 1 Who's Who woman of Polk county, the woman who contributes most in interest, influence and practical service to the welfare of the county as a whole, and does it from an unselfish standpoint we would not hesitate to name Mae Irene Flentye . . . Archie Paul Butler is back at the Ballenger Co., and Buck "Airplane" Moore is with Rector's . . . The Blind commission at Raleigh estimates Polk county will have to pay $360 as its part of the aid for the blind under the social security program. The state will furnish an equal amount . . . Mae West now admits that she was married to Frank Wallace in April 1911. . . . A packed theatre turned out Wednesday night to see "Dodsworth" in which David Niven had a part . . . Every merchant who advertises in the Bulletin is helping to give Tryon a
Continued on back page