Saluda Girl Drowns In Hole In River

Saluda, July 11.—Hattie Jones, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Jones, of Saluda, was drowned near here today while swimming in Green River.

Companions said the girl jumped from a rock into a deep hole at Green River cove, and drowned before she could be rescued. William Troutman, a member of the swimming party, was dragged under when he attempted to rescue the girl and had to be pulled from the river.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Friendship Baptist church near Saluda.

Miss Jones was a sister of Mrs. Roger Ellison of Tryon.

Alleged Murderers Abandon Automobile In Polk County

Columbus, July 10.—An automobile, used as an escape car by a gunman who killed a Lancaster (S. C.) policeman last Sunday, was found this morning in the Cooper's Gap section of Polk county. Sheriff W. D. Hines reported here, adding that the bandit had been identified as a convict named Smith who was one of a trio who escaped from the North Carolina state prison farm at Caledonia last winter.

Sheriff Hines said the bandit had been traced, along with his red-haired woman companion, as far
