MISS ROGERS HONORED

Mrs. Curtis Bynum entertained Friday afternoon with a lovely tea at her home, on Macon avenue, to honor Miss Eleanor Rogers, whose marriage to Carroll Pickens Rogers, Jr., of Tryon, is to take place July 24.

Receiving at the door was Mrs. Bynum, who wore a pale blue chiffon gown; Miss Rogers, who was in an organdy dress with red white and blue figures and bright grosgrain ribbon trimming; and Mrs. Carroll Rogers, of Tryon, who wore a crepe spectator sports dress of a pastel shade.

Mrs. George Floyd Rogers, mother of the bride-to-be, poured tea from one end of the table, and Mrs. John Moyler, of Richmond, Va., aunt of Miss Rogers, served coffee from the other.

Assisting in serving were: Miss Louise Rogers, Miss Josephine Gribbin, Miss Dorothy Acee, Miss Elizabeth Barron, and Mrs. Robert R. Williams, Jr.

Mrs. Paul Ringer presided over the punch bowl placed on the porch.

The centerpiece on the dining room table was formed of a miniature bride and bridegroom placed on a large mirror. The tiny bride's veil of white tulle extended around the mirror, and other greenery and flowers were used in decorating.

ANOTHER PARTY

Mrs. William A. Wright was hostess for another tea last week, which took place Saturday afternoon at the Wright home, 132 Furman avenue, in honor of Miss Rogers.

Mrs. George Floyd Rogers, mother of the honoree, poured tea from a table centered with an arrangement of petunias, larkspur, lilies, daisies, ferns and other summer flowers. Mrs. Lewis W. Elias, mother of the hostess, assisted in serving for the afternoon.

After tea, a shower of gifts was presented the honoree. — Asheville Citizen.
