Browns Buy Here

Judge and Mrs. Thomas E. Brown, who came to Tryon from Washington, D. C., over a year ago, stopped at Hotel Tryon, awhile, then leased the Uchtmann house on Lynn road, have now purchased the Prof. Simmons house on Lanier street next to Mrs. James Jackson. They have already taken possession. While giving the community a tryout Judge and Mrs. Brown have become interested in local civic affairs. The judge joined the Rotary club and is teaching a Sunday school class of boys. Sale through G. Harrison Bridgeman.

Dance Friday

The Big Apple will feature the dance on Friday evening at Sunnydale Log Cabin. Tenny Freck's orchestra will again furnish the music.

Taylor At Rotary

Dr. George Farrand Taylor will be the chief speaker at the Tryon Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Lake Lanier Inn. His subject will be "The Meaning of Democracy". J. B. Hester, Sr., will be in charge of the program.

Baseball Saturday

Tryon and Beacon will play baseball Saturday afternoon at Harmon Field.

Dear Mr Vining,

Heaven alone knows what is happening in Europe at the moment. I am sure that nobody else does. While the Non-Intervention Committee quarrels over its' next move, and our Prime Minister implores us to keep calm, cool and collected, General Franco's army of Spaniards, Germans and Italians is pushing into the Basque country. In France there is a financial crisis, in Belgium an amnesty crisis, and in Germany a religious crisis. The best way to treat these unpleasantnesses, I have found, is to go to Wimbledon to watch the tennis. Which shows that I am as optimistically, apathetically muddle-headed as the typical Englishman.

We are all very much surprised that Helen Jacobs was beaten in her tennis match with Dorothy Round, but I dare say Dorothy Round was even more surprised, not, of course, to mention Helen Jacobs! Well, I think we've cleared that up pretty well! Alice Marble was extremely popular with the crowd, and so was Budge, who has charming court manners. In fact, we came to the conclusion that the American players were the only ones who seemed even faintly human. Occasionally, I mean they cracked a smile, or said Sorry and Good shot. Sometimes one could imagine that they were playing a game, and not indulging in a life and death struggle
