Boy Scout Official Praises Local Camp

Director Stanley Harris, of inter-racial activities of the Boy Scouts of America, is in Tryon inspecting the Piedmont Council Boy Scout camp at Lake Lanier. He stated this morning that the Piedmont camp was one of the most nearly perfect camps that he had ever visited and that the leadership was almost as good as the physical set-up. The councillors are all high type young men and Executive R. M. Schiele is a marvel, said Director Harris. Mr. Harris has his headquarters at 2 Park Avenue, New York in the Boy Scout offices, but spends his summers with Mrs. Harris at Amantia, near Blowing Rock, N. C. He hasn't visited the Tryon camp in about 8 years and marveled at the improvement that has been made. During the National Jamboree in Washington, he directed the transportation activities of that great gathering.

To Rebuild

An official of the Pacolet Knitting Co., stated Friday that the dyeing department that was destroyed by fire Thursday night, would be rebuilt soon. A crew of men are cleaning away the debris for a new building.
