

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JULY 19, 1937

Kiwanis In Columbus

The Tryon Kiwanis club will meet Tuesday at 6:30 p. m., at the Stearns school with the Presbyterian Auxiliary furnishing the food. C. M. Eargle will be in charge of the program.

B. S. Board to Meet At Piedmont Camp

Tryon, N. C., July 19th.—The Executive Board of the Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America, Inc., representing the counties of Gaston, Cleveland, Lincoln, Rutherford, Polk, Iredell, Alexander, Caldwell, Catawba, Burge and McDowell will meet at the Piedmont Boy Scout camp at Lake Lanier on Sunday morning, July 25th, at which time an inspection of the new development of the camp will be made and the business of the organization will be transacted.

The meeting will open at 10:30 o'clock with a church service conducted by Judge Bismark Capps of Gastonia, who is president of the Piedmont Council. Following the service a business meeting will be held and an inspection of the camp will be made. The camp has been greatly enlarged, some 35 acres have been added to the site and many improvements have been made making it possible for the camp to accommodate 160 campers each week. From 1,300 to 1,400 different Scouts will be served by the camp this summer. Members of the Board will be entertained at dinner at one o'clock.

'Curb' Reporter

Looking over the Chicago Tribune this morning see where Ann Bingham of Tryon won two places in the Monmouth County Horse Show at Rumson, N. J. Some of the best horses and riders in the country took part in the event. Miss Bingham won second place in the Good Hands class and fourth in the Horsemanship class . . . That Gone With the Wind dress in the Blue Rigde Weavers window has given away to miniature figures dancing the "Big Apple" the new dance that is sweeping the South. Danced for the first time in Tryon at Sunnydale on Friday. Pawley's Island people claimed to have started. It's going strong at Myrtle Beach. An Observer writer states that it has got something different and has put so much pep and fun in summer dancing. See you at Sunnydale Friday . . . "Carolina Oddities drawings of odd things in North Carolina is similar to "Believe it or Not", has a picture in Sunday's paper of a man looking through a telescope at the World's Smallest Daily Newspaper in Tryon, N. C. . . . Miss Nash will be at the cemetery Tuesday. Need any help in cleaning up your lot? . . . Commissioner C. M. Eargle wants this writer to spend the first night in the local jail when it is finished. . . . The banty rooster has been

Continued on back page