

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JULY 20, 1937

County Schools

To Open Monday

The Polk county schools of Columbus, Mill Spring, Sunny View and Green Creek will open for the summer session on Monday morning.

Kiwanis Tonight

Miss Agnes McLeod and a group of 4-H club girls will put on a program at the Tryon Kiwanis meeting tonight at 6:30 at the Stearns high school domestic science room in Columbus. C. M. Eargle will be in charge of the program. The Presbyterian Auxiliary will serve the food.

'Curb' Reporter

King Carol of Rumania is visiting in England, the home of his great grandma . . . Secretary Isham Henderson has some more openings for Federal jobs paying from $300 to $600 a month for work as wardens in prisons, field representative for Savings Bonds, safety promotion advisors, etc. . . . The recent rains has speeded up the work of weeds at the Tryon cemetery. Miss Nash says the shrubs need trimming. Ground needs turning under for autumn sowing of clover, rye or grass . . . The Tryon Boys club is doing excellent work. Jimmie Little is in charge of airplane work. 40 boys were present this morning. Next Friday is hike day instead of Thursday . . . The Misses Pitkin write from Brevard that they have been giving their Bulletins to
----- Continued on back page -----

Public Welfare

Raleigh, July 20.—Thirty-three of North Carolina's 100 counties are eligible to participate in a $200,000.00 equalization fund to help them raise their contributions for Old Age Assistance and Aid to Dependent Children, it has been announced by Nathan H. Yelton, director of the Division of Public Assistance of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare.

The equalization fund will consist of $100,000.00 of state money, which will be matched by $100,000 by the federal government. It is designed to aid those counties which would have to levy an excessive tax rate in order to raise their one-fourth contribution for indigent aged and one-third for dependent children.

Yelton explained that the only counties eligible were those in which the combined levy for the two programs would exceed 10 cents on the $100 valuation, and that the equalization fund would only contribute 75 per cent of the difference.

Counties eligible to draw from the equalization fund are:

Ashe, Avery, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Carteret, Caswell, Cherokee, Clay, Craven, Cumberland, Dare, Gates, Greene, Hoke, Jackson, Jones, Macon, Madison, Mitchell, Nash, New Hanover, Pamlico, Person, Polk, Stokes, Swain, Tyrrell, Union, Warren, Wilkes, Yadkin and Yancey.

Abandon hope of finding Amelia Earhart and navigator, Fred Noonan.