

ELEANOR ROGERS
ANNOUNCES LIST OF ATTENDANTS

Plans for the wedding of Miss Eleanor Rogers, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. George Floyd Rogers, of 216 Pearson drive, to Carroll Pickens Rogers, Jr., of Tryon, were announced yesterday. The ceremony will be held Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock at Trinity Episcopal church.

The Rev. Mr. Rogers, father of the bride, will officiate assisted by the Rev. E. Reinhold Rogers, uncle of the bride-elect, who is head of the Home for Boys at Covington, Virginia.

Miss Rogers has chosen as her maid-of-honor, her sister, Miss Louise Rogers. Mrs. Robert R. Williams, Jr., will serve as matron-of-honor in the wedding.

Bridesmaids will be: Miss Margaret Rogers, Miss Julia Rogers, both sisters of the bride-elect; Mrs. Baxter Haynes and Miss Hope Rogers of Tryon, sisters of Carroll Rogers; Miss Carol Erskine, Miss Rachel Jackson, both of Tryon, Miss Elizabeth Barron, Miss Jessie Beadles, Miss Dorothy Acee, and Miss Stuart Hensley, of Asheville; Miss Alice Tate of Charlotte, and Mrs. John Page Elliott, of Richmond, Va.

George Brannon, of Tryon, will serve as Mr. Rogers' best man.

Ushers will be Robert R. Williams, Jr., Edwin Fitch, Paul Ringler, Malcolm McDonald of Asheville; Sam Bingham, George Holmes, Lawrence Holmes, and Baxter Haynes, all of Tryon, Carson Ford, of Burnsville; John Erskine and Mack Erskine of Racine, Wis.; Robert Erskine of Wilmington and Sam Smith of Charlotte.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception will take place at the Biltmore Forest Country club.

Among the out-of-town guests who have arrived and are arriving for the wedding are: Mr. and Mrs. George Floyd Rogers, Jr., who are at the home of Mr. Rogers' parents, Pearson drive, Miss Margaret Zimmer, of Petersburg, Va., who arrived Saturday and is also at the George F. Rogers' home. Mr. and Mrs. John Page Elliott will arrive Thursday from Richmond, Va., and will stay at the Biltmore Forest Country club.

Many social courtesies have been extended Miss Rogers since the announcement of her engagement. Miss Sudabelle Wall held open house Sunday afternoon at her home, 30 Watauga street in compliment to Miss Rogers.

Mrs. Kingsland Van Winkle, mother of the hostess and Mrs. John Hursey, aunt of the hostess, assisted with serving. Presiding at the tea table during the afternoon were: Miss Joyce Austin, Miss Betty Ann Bevin, Miss Sara Johnson and Miss Katherine Pearce.

Members of the wedding party will be honored at a buffet supper to be given this evening (Tuesday) by Miss Rachel Jackson, of Tryon. Guests have been invited for 7:30 o'clock and the party will be held at the Tryon home of the hostess.

Miss Marjorie Blake of 210 Kimberly avenue, Miss Stuart Hensley of Fairmont road, Grove Park, and Miss Sara Johnson, of "Pine Knoll", Biltmore Forest, will entertain with a spinster dinner to be given Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Asheville Country club.—Asheville Citizen.

Telephone Johnston's Dairy for PURE GRADE "A" Milk.

QUALITY

Is Never Cheap

FOR Better Cleaning

Call 203

RECTOR'S

Cleaners and Laundry