"CURB" REPORTER

Here is a matter of life and death:

"My dear Mr. Vining:

I have agreed to act as registrar of Vital Statistics for the township of Tryon exclusive of the town of Tryon, which territory is handled by Miss Virginia Bland.

I should like to take this opportunity to ask the co-operation of all physicians, mid-wives and parents in registering the births of all children in the township.

With an increasing number of laws in regard to child labor and pensions it is more and more necessary to have date and place of birth.

Notarized death certificates are necessary before insurance can be collected. MAE IRENE FLENTYE

When told what Walter Winchell said about David Niven and Merle Oberon breaking their engagement, Lefty Flynn said yesterday that David and Merle were coming to Tryon this fall as the guests of the Flynn's at Little Orchard . . . Football practice for Tryon high school started this afternoon . . . One nice thing about this rainy weather we get a lot of pretty sunshine along with it, and rain-bows, too . . . Kit McMaster left St. Luke's hospital this morning after several days' treatment following his accident Sunday afternoon. Kit, who is a guest of the
