"CURB" REPORTER

Phil Windsor says that the competitive pursuit of wealth is the scourge of mankind and that war will end only when we put into effect fair trade agreements with all nations . . . A Bessemer, Ala., Kiwanian writes, "The miracle of good will which has existed between our two great American countries (Canada-U. S.) stands as a shining example of what can be done between nations which are really possessed of the spirit of brotherly love" . . . A subscriber takes issue with the Curb Reporter for saying that we would now have more and better milk. It does seem hard to believe that the delicious milk from Tryon dairies could be any better. From the standpoint of taste and looks we don't believe there is any better, and if the local dairy furnished you and only other healthy people with milk everything would be "hunky dory", but sick people with all kinds of diseases also buy milk from the dairies or stores and return the bottles maybe laden with unfriendly germs. If the dairy doesn't have the right kind of boilers to steam these little fellows off they cling to the bottles like little bulldogs until they take a notion to swim in your fresh milk and cling to you awhile with disastrous results—to
