Piedmont Scout Camp Closes Record Season

Gastonia, Sept. 7.—The piedmont Boy Scout Camp which has been in operation at Lake Lanier near Tryon, N. C., for the past thirteen summers has recently closed its season with the record attendance in the history of the camp. More than 1,300 different Scouts and leaders were enrolled in the camp this summer which has been operated during June, July and Aug.

The camp has also achieved a record in Scout Advancement, 25 boys having attained the Eagle Rank at the camp and 1,331 advancement awards were made. More than 100 boys learned to swim and 97 Scouts and leaders passed the American Red Cross Life Saving tests.

During the summer many improvements and additions were made to the camp buildings and equipment and extensive building will be done to further enlarge the camp for the coming summer.

The headquarters of the Piedmont Council Boy Scouts of America was moved from Tryon to Gastonia yesterday (Tuesday) where the business of the organization is handled during the fall and winter months of the year.
