

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPT. 17, 1937

53 Tryon Students Attend 40 Colleges

In Thursday's list of college and school students going away for higher education we omitted by error the names of Margie Bolinger of Mars Hill college and Vernon Fowles of N. C. State college. The largest number going to any one college is eight, and they go to the University in Chapel Hill. The name of John Byers has been changed to Bill Byers. The corrected list is as follows:

James and Robert Little, Eugene and Frank Turner, Alan Calhoun, Anson Merrick, George C. Aid, and Bill Byers, to the University of N. C.; Edward Sayre to N. C. State at Raleigh, Louise Camp, Ruth Creas-

Continued on Back Page

MRS FLYNN AND MR. BINGHAM TO TALK ON CORONATION AT P.-T. A.

The Parent-Teachers Association will hold its first meeting of the school year on Monday evening, September 20, at 8 o'clock.

A most interesting program has been arranged. Mr. S. A. Bingham will present slides taken of the Coronation and Mrs. M. B. Flynn will have for her discussion "The Law and Order of the Coronation."

All parents and friends of the school are cordially invited to attend.

Following the program tea will be served by the hostesses: Mrs. W. A. Schilleter, Mrs. John Ferguson, Mrs. R. H. Brady, Mrs. C. H. Helms, Mrs. Morgan Morris and Mrs. J. E. Derby.

Polk County To Hear Temperance Addresses Soon

Rutherfordton, N. C., Sept. 16—The Rev. M. A. Adams, field representative of the state dry forces has announced the program for field day in Polk county, Sunday, October 3.

Public addresses on temperance will be delivered in various churches as follows:

Saluda, 11 a. m., union service, First Baptist church, the Rev. M. A. Adams, speaker; Green's Creek Baptist church 11 a. m., J. J. Tarlton, county superintendent of schools, speaker; Cooper's Gap Baptist church, 11 a. m., R. E. Price, speaker; Cane Creek Baptist church, 11 a. m., W. R. Hills, speaker; Mill Spring Baptist church, 11 a. m., Dr. J. J. Tilley, speaker; Tryon Methodist church, 7:30 p. m., stereoptician lecture by the Rev. M. A. Adams; Columbus Baptist church, 7:30 p. m., Dr. J. J. Tilley, speaker.

The public has been invited to attend each of these services. A free will offering for the work will be taken.

Mahoney gets early lead in N. Y. election. New deal candidate has big advantages outside Manhattan. La Guardia leads on G. O. P. ticket. Mayor assured of place on ballots in November general election. A great outpouring of votes in the populous boroughs surrounding Manhattan gave pro-new deal Jeremiah T. Mahoney a heavy lead late yesterday over Tammany-backed Royal S. Copeland.