

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., SEPT. 29, 1937

Dr. Sevier Addresses The Tryon Kiwanians

Dr. Joseph R. Sevier, president of Fassifern School for Girls and Kiwanis Governor of the Carolinas District, addressed the Tryon club on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. He gave an inspiring outline of the opportunities for civic service in Kiwanis clubs and for the development of a finer fellowship among the members. The Tryon club which already has two wheel chairs constantly in use by invalids in the community and county voted to purchase another chair for the free use of invalid citizens not able to buy a chair. The demand for these chairs is greater than the supply. The first chair was donated by Dr. and Mrs. John Brittan Clark in memory of Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. Woodbridge. The second chair was loaned by Miss Patricia Pensinger for use through the club. The Kiwanis club takes care of the chairs and hauls them back and forth to the needy ones without charge. Any person having a chair to loan to this worthy service may inform the Bulletin office or C. J. Lynch. The club is also trying to supply crutches to those needing them temporarily.

Democrat Wins Seat in Massachusetts. Massachusetts's heavily industrialized seventh congressional district tonight voted a Democrat into the house for the ninth consecutive time, selecting Lawrence J. Connery of Lynn in a special election to fill the seat of his brother, the late Chairman Connery of the house labor committee.

"CURB" REPORTER

"30" may mean the end in printing terms, but the reporter has a printer friend who was his first boss, and now co-publisher of a daily paper at Troy, Ala. So I read it more carefully than most of the exchanges. The other day I noticed a poem in it by Dr. E. E. Bomar's son-in-law, Dr. John W. Frazer, of Montgomery, Ala. It is as follows:

FARING ON

Death, a crossing
With muffed oars,
The river runs
Between the shores.

Death a passage
Through tunnel'd night
The tunnel ends
But not the light.

Death-faring on,
The Cross is set
'Twixt Bethlehem
And Olivet.

Larry Gellert (Golay) is married, according to Bill Weigel Dr. J. I. Lea states that the Tau Rock Vineyards have a lot of ripe, sweet, clear grapes in spite of the weather Ann Clark celebrated her birthday Sunday evening with a group of friends. And Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln was seen to put in his birthday collection at Sunday school last Sunday.