Justice Black Speaks Tonight

Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black will speak over the radio tonight for 20 minutes beginning 9:30. Red and Blue networks of the NBC chain, and the Mutual and Columbia chains will broadcast the talk from coast to coast. This will be the first statement of the new justice since he was charged with being a member of the Ku Klux Klan and there have been so many attacks on him in newspapers that he will probably have one of the largest audiences ever listened to a speaker.

Child Burned

Little Betsy Suttle, three-year-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gaze, was painfully scalded this morning when a pan of hot water was accidentally knocked from the stove into her lap. She was rushed to the hospital for treatment.
