

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCT. 5, 1937

At Kiwanis

F. H. Jeter, agricultural editor of the State Extension Department, Raleigh, addressed the Tryon Kiwanis club today noon at Hotel Tryon, and pointed out the possibilities of developing the dairy and truck industry of this section. He also praised the work of the Tryon Kiwanis club in co-operating with the farm program in this county. Delegates to the district convention at Charlotte have been named as follows: J. N. Jackson, C. J. Lynch, K. A. Bowen. Alternates: R. H. Brady, C. M. Earle and Hoyt O. Prince.

The Kiwanis club will meet with the Tryon Rotary club on October 13th at Oak Hall and help entertain the travel tours representatives. M. R. McCown is representing the Rotary club and C. J. Lynch of the Kiwanis club in charge of arrangements.

A nominating committee for next year's officers and directors was named as follows: Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, J. N. Jackson and J. E. Troy.

Singing Convention

The monthly singing convention will meet at Saluda Baptist church Sunday, October 10th, at 2 o'clock. Everybody invited to come. We are expecting singers from adjoining counties to be with us.—H. E. P.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 4.—Democrats, picking up where they left of last November, appeared to be making heavy inroads in the Republican column tonight on the basis of incomplete returns from small town elections.

"CURB" REPORTER

James E. Johnson who writes Here 'N' Yonder for The Polk County News, farms a little and presses and sets for the Daily Bulletin, is out of the office today, making sorghum molasses at his farm A number of people have asked the Bulletin editor to say something about the parks around the depot needing attention, especially before the travel tour gets here on Oct. 13th. Interviewing Mayor E. E. Missildine to see what the Town could do about it, the reporter learned that the Town has appropriated a sum of money for this purpose to be spent under the direction of the Tryon Garden club. This was done weeks ago. The Garden club should be the proper agent to look after this work from the standpoint of qualification and interest. Just why the club has been waiting we do not know, but if it does a good job we are sure the public spirited citizens of the community will give the financial support, in the future if the Town fails to place it in its budget. A reliable custodian willing to take the responsibility is all that has been needed. Now that the money has been provided we may look for results . . . Auburn and Tulane played to a 0-0 tie Monday, two days after the football field had

Continued on back page