

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCT. 7, 1937

Warrant Charges Man With Arson

Charged in a warrant with arson in connection with the alleged burning of a house in the Landrum section last December, a man listed as Wade Henderson, 35, was arrested yesterday by county officers near Landrum and lodged in the county jail.

Henderson was arrested on a warrant sworn out by John McClure before Magistrate J. H. Williams.

The warrant charges that "on or about December 24, 1936, one Wade Henderson did commit the crime of arson in that he did burn the house of John McClure in which Sim Littlefield was living at the time stated above, or did cause to be burnt to the said property, which is contrary to the statutes made and provided in such cases."

Chief of Rural Police F. S. Moore, Rural Officer O. B. Edge made the arrest.—Spartanburg Herald.

Bishop at Rotary

Dr. B. B. Bishop will be in charge of the Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The United States government formally condemned Japan tonight as a treaty violator in China, thus throwing its full moral support behind efforts of the League of Nations to halt the Far Eastern conflict.

"CURB" REPORTER

To O. B. Kelly, the book agent, who was 72 last Thursday, we are indebted for two old copies of The Polk County News one published August 27, 1908, at Columbus by Charles H. Williams and the other of June 11, 1915, by W. F. and G. R. Little . . . Miss Virginia Bland has a unique dogwood tree on her place at the Gillette Woods entrance. The tree is now in bloom with white flowers and also the red berries of fall. . . . Any boy in the county can be a Boy Scout if he wants to. Write The Polk County News or Tryon Daily Bulletin for information . . . Next Wednesday, October 13, is the day the Travel Agency Tour will come to Tryon. . . . The Directors and Officers of the Tryon Kiwanis club will meet tonight at 6:30 at the home of President K. A. Bowen . . . Postmaster W. H. Stearns will have some special Tryon Air Mail Envelopes printed in several colors and for sale at the postoffice on Friday morning. People wanting to get an air mail letter stamped with the Kitty Hawk post office mark on it may get one of these envelopes and ask Uncle Bill about it . . . Quotation for today: "Only they who fulfill their duty in everyday matters will fulfill them on great occasions." Kingsley . . .