

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCT. 14, 1937

Lemberts Buy Home Of Miss Lucy Peet

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lembert, who spent the spring in the Prentice Luckey house on Piney Mountain, and who are now in Miss Bessie Merrill's house in Gillette Woods, have purchased the home of Miss Lucy Peet in the Valley. The sale was made through C. J. Lynch, local realtor. Mr. and Mrs. Lembert will occupy their new home early in November.

Court of Honor Here Next Week

Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, chairman of the Boy Scout Court of Honor, announces that there will be a meeting of the Polk County Court of Honor on Monday, October 18th, at the Parish House at 7:30 at which time Executive R. M. Schiele will show motion pictures that he made of the National Jamboree in Washington this summer. The public is cordially invited.

State-Wide Forest Fire Laws Given

All parties are required to get a burning permit to burn all brush and rubbish within 500 feet of any protected forest.

Failure to do so carries a minimum fine of $10.00 and costs. Permits can be secured from R. B. Williams, S. L. Feagan and J. M. Melton.

100 Travel Guests Here on Wednesday

Approximately 100 travel agency executives, newspaper and magazine writers making a 12-day tour of the state passed through Polk county Wednesday in two large buses and several autos. The tour was halted in Saluda for a few moments to receive baskets of apples from the officials and citizens and to listen to the school children sing songs.

Arriving at Tryon the group was ushered to the Tryon Country club where Dr. Derby's string band was playing mountain music. Everything clicked just right. Many of the guests started dancing as soon as their feet touched the floor. A group gathered around the musicians and began to sing. Another group was fascinated watching Aunt Molly Pritchard at the old spinning wheel making homespun yarn. While all this was going on others were going down the line sampling something said to be real "cawn likker." From there the guests were led to a corn liquor still in operation. On the way up the golf links they passed the little log hut occupied temporarily by "big" Sam Petty dressed for the occasion with powder horn, rifle and hound dogs. The hut was decorated with coon skins, stuffed eagle, horns and other mountain emblems. To the right a sign read "19th Hole". Above the spring with gourd dippers was another that read "good, but no wallop." "The Road to Mandalay," "Hell Hole Swamp", "Hoot'n' Owl Hol-

Continued on back page