Good Speech Program At School On Monday

The Sixth grade chapel program under the direction of Miss Eleazer will be given on Monday noon, October 18th, in the Tryon school auditorium. The students will be pleased if parents and friends will come to see and hear the program. L. A. Alewine will announce. The program consists of the following songs: "School Days", Alice In Wonderland," and "I Had Four Brothers". Special parts will be sung by Anne Brundage, Elizabeth Anne Vining, Frank Wall and Paul Butler.

The play is entitled "The Magic of Good Speech." Those taking part are: Gelolo Iris Kell, Bill Mebane, Sue Lindsey, Ben Crosswhite, Ernest Waters, Paul Cantrell, Howard Reid, Marvin Edwards, Joyce Edney, Frances Williams and Hazel Durham.

The class will recite a poem, "Myself."

The class is very proud of of the posters which each of them made, about a balanced meal. They each planned a meal, then cut, and pasted pictures of each food on the poster. The best ones were made by Elizabeth Anne Vining, Bill Mebane, Ann Brundage, Marvin Edwards, Margaret Waters, Nancy Morton, Gelolo Iris Kell.

Tryon Loses

Tryon's football team lost to Hendersonville Friday afternoon at Hendersonville by a score of 14-0. The game was close throughout. Hendersonville's reserve strength wore the local team down, but the locals put up a good fight.
