

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCT. 22, 1937

Big Apple Tonight

The Tryon school will give a demonstration of the Big Apple dance at the Country club tonight. The public is invited to be spectators. Mrs. Flynn is the hostess. A four-piece orchestra will furnish the music. Refreshments will be on sale by the Country club tea room.

Today's Headlines

Chinese appear to be holding their own front in battle with Japs.

Spanish rebels take Gijon, last important government town on the North Coast.

France and Italy still arguing over the Spanish situation.

Western North Carolina Methodists vote 402 to 22 for unification of three different branches of the Methodist church.

"CURB" REPORTER

Carl Goerch, noted editor of the State Magazine, Raleigh, was a visitor to Tryon today accompanied by John Bragaw of Washington, N. C. This is Editor Goerch's second visit to Tryon, but each visit has lasted only a few minutes. He hasn't had any time to see much of the community. We want to get him back some day for a visit to Hogback Mountain, Piney Mt.,

Continued on Page Eight

H. C. Metcalf

News has been received in Tryon of the death of Herbert C. Metcalf Thursday noon in Chicago. No further information is available. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf had been in Chicago for several months on business and the news was a shock to many friends in this section. Mr. Metcalf had large business interests in Chicago and was formerly head of the Metcalf Stationery Company. He and Mrs. Metcalf came to this section more than twelve years ago and built a beautiful home in Columbus. He was deeply interested in all things for the civic improvement of the county and its people.

P. T. A. Bridge-Games Party On Tuesday, 26

The Tryon Parent-Teacher association will give their annual bridge-games party at the Parish House on Tuesday evening, October 26, at 8 o'clock.

Many tables have been reserved and a very delightful time is in store for all who are present. Approximately fifty prizes have been donated by the merchants and one will be given to each table. Those who have not reserved their tables may phone Mrs. K. A. Bowen or Mrs. E. Perry Manville for reservations.

Elected New S.-R. Head

Ernest E. Norris, senior vice-president, was elected president of the Southern Railway yesterday to succeed Fairfax Harrison, who has rounded out 24 years of service as chief executive.