Kiwanis Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis club will meet on Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Hotel Tryon. This will be the last meeting before the district convention which meets October 28-30. Delegates from Tryon to the convention are J. N. Jackson, K. A. Bowen, C. J. Lynch, alternates: R. H. Brady, Hoyt O. Prince and C. M. Eargle. Other Kiwanians and their wives may also attend the convention. Prominent civic leaders will speak at the business sessions. High spot of the convention will be the Governor's banquet and reception Friday night, followed by the Governor's ball. No speeches will be made at the big banquet, officials said. Instead, a musical extravaganza will be staged for Kiwanians and their wives. Stars of this show will be famed Dorothy Baker, soprano, and Maury Pearson, well-known baritone of Spartanburg, S. C., supported by the Charlotte male chorus, Peter Martin, xylophone player, Michael Wise's concert orchestra, and several quartets.
