

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCT. 26, 1937

"CURB" REPORTER

Been too busy to do much reporting . . . Painted the kitchen last night . . . Going to the P.-T. A. party tonight . . . In Saturday's church notice one article read "audiphones for the dear". Hope the printer doesn't set Curt Eargle's deer hunt as a dear hunt. I'd have to leave town . . . The Tryon Country club is growing more popular every day. The Rotary club will hold its regular weekly luncheon at the club tea room on Friday at 1 p. m. Meals being served by Mesdames Connally and Sumner. Dr. Palmer will be in charge of the program. . . It is raining and lightning this afternoon . . . The government will try to reduce the cotton acreage by 1,000,000 acres next year . . . Stocks went up yesterday and today . . . The Chinese are still holding their own against the Japs . . . Belgian cabinet resign to fight political enemies . . . Cam Morrison urging Governor Hoey to run for the U. S. Senate. . . . Garfield Mills is wearing a green tam now . . . The Raleigh News and Observer carried a picture of Sam Petty and the 'still the other day . . . H. L. Mason writes from Indianapolis, Ind., that he will be at the Ballenger-Jackson Company on October 27, to take the measure of any man want-

.....Continued on Back Page.....

At Kiwanis Today

C. M. Eargle gave an interesting account of his recent deer hunt near Brevard and Chas. E. Bingham, brother-in-law of Dr. Lincoln, gave a short talk on the importance of imports which reminded the members of Phil Windsor, who preached that the only way to sell more goods satisfactorily to Europe is to buy more goods from them. Following the meeting the officers and directors elected Seth M. Vining secretary for 1938. The official board for next year will be as follows: President, R. H. Brady; Immediate Past President K. A. Bowen; Vice-President, Hoyt O. Prince; Treasurer, C. J. Lynch; Secretary Seth M. Vining; Directors: C. M. Eargle, J. N. Jackson, J. E. Brownlee, C. A. Lincoln, C. P. Rogers, J. A. Wilson and Joe Troy.

Brotherhood Thursday

The Wesley Brotherhood will meet Thursday at 7 p. m. for a supper meeting in the dining room of the Methodist church. The new pastor, the Rev. M. A. Lewis, is expected to be present and all members of the Brotherhood are urged to be present and meet him. Anyone bringing guests should notify Byron Rector.

New Taxi Service

Dick Burnette of the Supreme Service Station announces in today's Bulletin the beginning of the Supreme Taxi Service which includes cars for hire by the day or week and a low minimum taxi fare within the town limits.