

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCT. 28, 1937

Howard Bissell, 59; Dies In Buffalo, N. Y.

Howard Bissell, who had been coming to Tryon with his family for many years passed away on Monday. He and Mrs. Bissell bought property on Skyuka creek last winter and were coming to Tryon this fall to plan their home. The New York Times gives the following account:

"Buffalo, N. Y., Oct 24.—Howard Bissell, president of the Niagara National Bank of Buffalo since 1933, died tonight in Millard Fillmore hospital after a week's illness. His age was 59.

"Mr. Bissell, who was president of the New York State Bankers Association in 1922, was formerly president of the Peoples Bank and later chairman of the board of the Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company both of Buffalo.

"Mr. Bissell, a native of Buffalo, was graduated from Yale in 1900 and at once entered banking in Buffalo. In 1930 Governor Roosevelt appointed him to the committee to revise the banking laws of the State.

"He married Dorothy Carroll Trego of Hackensack, N. J., in 1910. There are two children."

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of the Holy Cross will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday afternoon, November 1, in the Parish House at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. F. P. Bacon will talk on Impressions of the Episcopal General Convention held in Cincinnati in October.

H. B. Kelly Returns To Oak Hall Hotel

H. B. Kelly, prominent Hendersonville banker and hotel man who leased Oak Hall last winter will operate it again this season. A half-page advertisement will appear in Friday's Tryon Daily Bulletin giving a list of the various rates to be charged this season. M. A. Richards, owner of the Oak Hall, leaves today with his daughter, Miss Janet Richards, for Tucson, Arizona, where they will spend the winter.

Another Radio Shop

Advertisement in today's Tryon Daily Bulletin announces the opening of a radio repair department by the Automatic Heating Co. Manager J. M. Baker states that Carl McClure, who returned this spring from a radio service school in New York, will be in charge of the new department.

Brotherhood Tonight

The Wesley Brotherhood will meet tonight at 7 o'clock in the dining room of the Tryon Methodist church.

Rotary Meets Friday At the Country Club

The Tryon Country club surrounded by hills tinted with the glorious colors of the fall leaves will be the scene of the Rotary club luncheon on Friday at 1 p. m. Dr. M. C. Palmer will be in charge of the program.