

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, NOV. 1, 1937

Tim McCoy Spends Week-End In Tryon

Col. Tim McCoy, noted movie actor, who conducts a wildwest show with Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Circus, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Hill at Many Levels. Col. McCoy made the first shot on the Hills' new skeet course. The Colonel was entertained quite a bit while here and enjoyed the beautiful mountain scenery. The Hills took him to Atlanta this morning so he could meet his engagement with the circus in that city. Last year at circus time, the famous cowboy, and the actor, David Niven were guests of the Lefty Flynn's at Little Orchard and both spoke to the children at the school house.

"CURB" REPORTER

Three automobiles took up six parking spaces on Trade street Saturday morning just because the drivers didn't park between the lines. A little co-operation on the part of the law-abiding citizens will help a lot to influence the others to obey the law . . . Jap-Anglo relations further strained says headline . . . Dr. Henry Wade DuBose, pastor First Presbyterian church, Spartanburg, has accepted a call to the Dallas,

Continued on back page

Mrs. J. H. Blanton

Chesnee, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Irena Evelena Blanton, 84, widow of J. H. Blanton, died at her home, Rutherfordton, route 1, today after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Blanton was born May 15, 1853, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henry, of Rutherfordton county, North Carolina.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Green River Baptist church by the Rev. W. K. Wyatt and the Rev. T. M. Hester of Spindale. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be Clifton McMurray, G. Whit Owens, Floyd Owens, Isham Henderson, Ronald Cantrell and Darrell Tate.

The deceased is survived by six daughters and two sons, 32 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. G. Isham Henderson of Tryon is one of the grandchildren.

Kiwanis Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis club will meet on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. An interesting program has been arranged.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Citizens by the millions in nearly a third of the states will vote next Tuesday, but the elections, generally speaking, are expected to be devoid of national significance.

Voters will elect two state governors and half dozen legislatures. They will fill four congressional vacancies. They will change or reaffirm municipal administrations in three score cities, including New York.