

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., NOV. 3, 1937

"CURB" REPORTER

Dr. Edwin S. Lindsey, a professor of English at the University of Chattanooga, a former Tryonite, and a son-in-law of Mrs. Henry Bray, has accomplished much with his hobby, Music. He has composed a popular opera, "King Arthur". Last Thursday he conducted the orchestra for it at the Patten Chapel. We naturally like to brag about a hometown boy who played in a little Tryon band with Julian Hester, Lawrence Doubleday and others, but read what the Chattanooga papers say: "Dr. Lindsey's beautiful opera, "King Arthur" was rendered by a fine orchestra. The performance started at 8:30 but shortly after 7 o'clock people were being turned away. Certainly, the huge crowds, the willing donation of their services by orchestra and singers constitute a testimonial to Dr. Lindsey's ability and popularity unique within our memory." That was from a News editorial. The Chattanooga Times says: "After the overture started, Dr. Lindsey dropped his jocular mood. He became primarily the creator, striving for the best of which his charges were capable. Both orchestra and singers responded admirably, and the entire opera was given a distinguished performance. Most of the singers acted their parts as well as they sang. There

----- Continued on back page -----

A Man's Sale At Ballenger-Jackson's

Eight hundred extra copies of today's Tryon Daily Bulletin were purchased by the Ballenger-Jackson Company for distribution to non-subscribers in this area. This well-known big store has a two-page advertisement setting forth big values in men's and boys' furnishings. The entire show window of the Ballenger-Jackson Company has been turned into a large attractive display of clothes for men and boys.

The Lanier Club Official Notice

The first meeting of the Lanier club will be held Thursday, Nov. 4, at 3:30 p. m., at the Lanier library. The speaker for the day will be Archibald Rutledge.—Adv.

Rotary Meets At Oak Hall Friday

The Tryon Rotary club will meet on Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel with Major Sharp in charge of the program. Miss Mae Irene Flentye will be the chief speaker.

Forest Fires

Get a burning permit before you burn within 500 feet of any protected woods. "Protected wood" means any boundary or tract of timbered land.

R. B. Williams,
Polk County Forest Warden.