Mars Hill Beats Tryon-Saluda In Loop Contest, 7-0

Mars Hill, Nov. 5.— Mars Hill high school turned back the Tryon-Saluda aggregation here today, 7 to 0, in a Blue Ridge conference engagement.

The home team scored the lone touchdown of the contest in the third period. Taking the ball on their own 20-yard line, the Mars Hill gridders drove down to the Tryon-Saluda 25 from where B. Edwards aeriared to Carter for the score. Carter ran about 15 yards to cross the goal line after catching the pass. A pass interference ruling enabled Mars Hill to add the extra point.

G. Sprinkle, J. Robinson, B. Carter and B. Edwards, led the Mars Hill attack, while Heatherly, Jones and Staton starred for the visitors.

Girl Scouts Hike

Captain Estelle Pace and Lieutenant Ruth Ross chaperoned the Tryon Girl Scouts on a hike this morning to Shunkywauken Falls and the cliffs near Columbus.

Airplane Flights to Be Given Sunday

Dean Shields, local aviator, states that he is bringing a plane to Tryon with an experienced pilot, Kenneth Arnette, of Hendersonville, who has several hundred flying hours to his credit. This is the first flying to be done at the Tryon airport, and a large crowd is expected. There will be an air exhibition staged at 3 p. m. For those who are not familiar with the location of the Tryon airport, it is located one and one-half miles East of Tryon in Scrivens bottoms.

Mrs. Walt Glover Died This Morning

Mrs. Walt Glover, 21, nee Isabel Durham, passed away this morning about 1:30 o'clock following a lingering illness. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist church with Dr. E. E. Bomar officiating, assisted by Rev. Malcolm Ross. The Tryon Fire department, of which her husband is a member, will serve as pallbearers as follows: Clanny Ward, Dr. B. B. Bishop, Jr., Marshall Balew, W. W. Creasman, J. S. Arledge, Jack Ford.

The deceased is survived by her husband, and one son, Michael, age three. Mrs. Durham was educated in the Tryon high school and was prominent in young people's activities.
