The Holden and Peattie Houses Sale Confirmed

"Dunwanderin" the home of the late Robert and Elia W. Peattie and adjoining it "Around the Corner" home of the late Jean Stansbury Holden have been sold. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howell of New Jersey and Tryon have bought "Around the Corner" from Miss Effie Holden, and Miss Ethel Sharpe of Spartanburg has purchased "Dunwanderin." Both homes on Godshaw Hill have been the scenes of many brilliant occasions presided over by charming hosts, visited by interesting and distinguished people. They hold an atmosphere of literature, art, travel and many of the fine cultural things that help make up the hospitable Tryon spirit—a spirit that is attracting charming people from all over the world. The sales were made through G. H. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell, who are now occupying "Around the Corner", have been coming to Tryon for a number of years and have made many friends here. They have one son, David, who is a student at Asheville school.

Edsall at Rotary

Dr. David L. Edsall will be the speaker at the Tryon Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel. His subject will be "Outposts In Medicine." Dr. Alen Jones Jervy, Sr., will be in charge of the program.

Football

The Tryon-Saluda squad will play the strong Greenville team on Thursday afternoon at Harmon Field. This is the first game on the home field for quite a long time and a good crowd is expected. The two teams are in excellent shape and will give a good exhibition of football. The game will be called at three-thirty with the following officials: Referee, Schilletter (Clemson); umpire, Eargle (Newberry); field judge, Jackson (Virginia); head linesman, Pinckney (Sewanee); linesman, Wigget (P. C.)

The Tryon-Saluda football team is composed of: McGeachy, Shields, H., Parker, Edney, Jacobs, Swann, Beatson, D., Beatson, A., Green, R., Green, M., Heatherly, Staton, Holbert, Foster, Fox, Eaton, Vining, Taylor, Chapman, Byers.

County Offices Close For Armistice Day

All the county offices in the Court House will close on Thursday in celebration of Armistice Day. The stores, bank and Post Office at Tryon will also observe the day.

HEADLINES

Bucharest, Roumania, Nov. 9.—The condition of Dowager Queen Marie, 62, mother of King Carol, was reported today as serious. She vomited blood during the night but seven attending physicians said she was not in immediate danger.
