"CURB" REPORTER

"Presented with deep appreciation to Mr. M. B. Flynn by order of 'MXNZNM', The Negus", so reads an attractive poster-looking letter-size paper received this week from Emperor Haile Selassie who is sojourning in England. The paper had a picture of Haile, himself, the Lion of Judah, and a number of other interesting things emblematic of Ethiopia. Lefty was in a hurry and wouldn't give me time to take it all in. Haile's signature was beautifully painted in red ink and looked like a mixture of Chinese, Hebrew, Russian or something. It could pass for an attractive garden gate. Don't know what Negus means. Webster says it is a beverage of wine, hot water, sugar, nutmeg, and lemon juice. It is a very nice gift and one deeply appreciated even if we don't know what it is all about. Lefty invited the Emperor to visit Little Orchard last year and the gift is a token of Haile's appreciation. It would be a treat to have the Emperor visit Tryon after his stay in England Tryon and England are getting closer all the time. Marvin Edwards was greatly impressed the other day while fixing a radio in the Flynn home when he heard Michael Astor talking over the phone to his mother, Lady Astor, in London, with the same casual-
