

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, NOV. 16, 1937

James Clarence Boyd

James Clarence Boyd, of Landrum, S. C., died yesterday morning in a Columbia, S. C., hospital following an illness of about eight years.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Zora Boyd, of Candler; a son, J. E. Boyd, of Landrum; five daughters, Mrs. L. F. Hall, Mrs. Gertrude Thompson and Mrs. Joe King all of Spartanburg, S. C., and Mrs. Harry Johnson of Jackson Mills, S. C.; two brothers, Irvin Boyd, of Candler, and E. B. Boyd of Candler, route 1; and two sisters, Mrs. Sara Benfield, of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. Mildred McCarrison of Candler.

Party at Stearns

Stearns school will have a games party Friday night in the home economics rooms. Prizes and refreshments. Admission 25c. Party sponsored by the Outlook club for the benefit of the County library at Columbus.

Librarian Appointed

Saluda, Nov. 15.—Miss Elizabeth Simonton Thomas has been appointed to serve as librarian in the public library at Columbus. Miss Margaret Hart, of Saluda, will assume the librarian's position in the Saluda high school shortly.

Flynns Buy Additional Hunting Country Land

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn have purchased an additional tract of land joining their property in the Hunting Country. The sale was made through C. J. Lynch.

The Bulletin not only goes to a large number of colleges but is also in the army and navy. One of the latest army subscribers is John R. Constance at Panama Canal Zone . . . John Horner, who is a guest at Melrose Lodge, is a member of the Philadelphia Rotary club and has not missed a Rotary meeting in 12 years . . . Write your friends to make Tryon their headquarters while visiting the beautiful scenery of this section . . . Scout officials are planning for at least one boy out of every four to be a Boy Scout. Is your boy one of them. 75 per cent of the leaders in college student activities such as the presidents, officers, captains, managers, editors, etc., and the Rhodes scholars, have been Boy Scouts. The parent whose boy is not in Scouting is allowing him to pass up something that he will need later in life. Scouting does not select the best boys, but the progressive boys select Scouting . . . Julius Washington "Dick" Taylor has returned from Pisgah Forest deer hunt and brought home a deer which he killed . . .

