

Busy School

The Tryon Craft School conducted by Miss Vance and Miss Yale in the former Toy Shop building on Howard street, is a very busy little place these days with nearly 30 pupils from the Tryon grade school taking lessons in drawing, block printing and wood-carving. These splendid teachers are giving Tryon young people wonderful opportunities and the community is fortunate in having them here to pass on to others the art and craftsmanship which they have gathered from all over the world. They are being assisted by Miss Clare Briggs of Leesburg, Va., daughter of the late famous cartoonist Briggs, whose subject, "When A Fellow Needs A Friends", was a popular feature in many newspapers.

List of pupils from the public school who are taking drawing lessons at the Tryon Craft School: Leila Thompson, George Brockenbrough, Billy Helms, Mary Ann Morris, Mary Alewine, Sarah Capps, Jene Arledge, Dickey Dalton, Jock Blois, Nellie Burrell.

Class in block printing: Mary Iea Teasdale, Ann Brundage, Elizabeth Anne Vining, Frances Helms, Jean Derby, Hazel Reed.

Class in wood-carving: Cole Brundage, John Moore, Jimmie Paker, John Lewis Thompson, Ben Crosswhite, Harold Gosnell, Wilton Ferguson, John Smith, Jane Brand.

Christmas Cards

When you select Christmas cards, remember one thing: Christmas Cards are messages of Good Will. Their success is measured by the sentiment they express. Therefore, they should be chosen with utmost care. Help us promote the real "Spirit of Good Will Toward Men" by remembering everyone of your friends this year. You are invited to see the 1938 card display. It is truly the best we've ever offered.
