

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOV. 18, 1937

Mrs. Martha M'Guinn

Mill Springs, N. C., Nov. 17—Mrs. Martha McGuinn, 30, wife of J. McGuinn, died at a Rutherford hospital today after an illness of four weeks. She was born and reared in Polk county.

Besides her husband, Mrs. McGuinn is survived by three daughters, Pauline, Loree and Genell McGuinn; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belton Jackson; brothers, Robert, Albert, Charles, Theron and Foster Jackson; sisters, Minnie Lou, Dorothy Fay and Pedabee Jackson.

The funeral will be conducted today (Thursday) at 1 p. m., at the Cane Creek Baptist church with the Rev. S. M. Huntley officiating.

Assembly Program Tryon High School

The Tenth grade Assembly program for Friday, November 19th, from 12 to 12:30 o'clock will consist of:

"Thanksgiving Through the Ages", a patriotic pageant consisting of a prologue and five short scenes. This program is being given by the class in United States history in recognition of Book Week, in commemoration of our deliverance in national crises and in anticipation of the approaching Thanksgiving season. All members of the Junior class are taking part. Visitors will be welcomed.

John A. Arledge

Not To Run for Re-Election Again

Formal notice was made today by Superior Court Clerk John A. Arledge that he would not be a candidate for re-election. The announcement will be a surprise to hundreds of friends and supporters throughout the county. Mr. Arledge has served the county as Clerk of Court for about ten years. His job as Court Clerk and Probate Judge is one of great responsibility supervising the affairs of minors, estates, juvenile delinquents, the insane, administrators, bondsmen and other things requiring sound judgment. He was well trained in this kind of work. His father, the late J. P. Arledge, was Clerk, also for many years. He has held the respect and confidence of leaders in all parties. He has been a good politician. He has exercised unusual common sense. He has been fair and honest with rich and poor, Republican and Democrat. His voluntary retirement leaves the field open to many candidates who would not oppose him. No mention is made of the reason for his retirement. For many years Mr. Arledge has been building up one of the best farms in the county.

His formal notice is as follows:

"For the benefit of any one that desires to offer for the nomination for the office of Clerk Superior

Continued on Back Page