

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOV. 19, 1937

Fire Burns Cantrell Home This Morning

The five room house of Mrs. J. A. Cantrell on Saluda road near the Home Ice Plant was partially destroyed by fire this morning about 11 o'clock. The house was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson. The firemen had some difficulty in getting water to the fire but they did good work after getting started. Most of the household goods were saved. Mrs. Cantrell lives at Boiling Springs.

Red Cross Call

Rev. Chas. G. Sewall, chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call, reports that the returns from the Roll Call yesterday were very encouraging. Final reports have not yet been received from all Tryon committees nor have reports been received from Columbus and Saluda. Miss Margie Capps at Missildine's Pharmacy and Mrs. George A. Cathey at Blue Ridge Weavers will receive enrollments until Thanksgiving Day. "If all former members enroll for 1938 Polk County Chapter will go over the top," said the chairman.

China Massing Army

China is massing 200,000 fresh troops in preparation for fight to death battle with Japanese. Foreign embassies ready to evacuate.

Northern half of the U. S. under snow. Five inches in Penna.

New Minister Here

REV. B. G. HENRY

The new Baptist pastor, the Rev. B. G. Henry, has arrived with his family from Kannapolis. They are occupying the parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Henry have three children, Brock G., Jr., age 10; Virginia, age 8; and Eleanor, age 6, who have entered the Tryon school. Mr. Henry was educated at Davidson college and for the past several years was superintendent of one of the large schools of the Kannapolis system and was pastor of the Baptist church at Oakboro.