

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, NOV. 20, 1937

"CURB" REPORTER

Noah Hollowell in the Hendersonville Times - News suggests to markets that they sell portions of a turkey to small families. It is hard for two-member families to dispose of a big turkey. Not a bad idea! Student representatives from 18 colleges met in Raleigh recently and conducted a legislative session in the same manner as the regular state assembly is held. It was the first in the South and will be held annually to help teach students public speaking and some knowledge of how our laws are made. Vernon Fowles, a sophomore of Tryon was a member of the "senate" and made a ten minute speech in presenting a "bill" on Educational Appropriation for the State of North Carolina. Senator Bailey and Governor Hoey addressed the "assembly." Next year they plan to hold a Federal assembly That's more than a Rummage Sale the Baptists are having this afternoon. New kitchen aprons, confections, vegetables, walnuts, and many other useful articles will be on sale at the old town hall on Maple street Hendersonville is covered with snow this morning. No wonder there was ice in that wind That Squmerco road looks good now since the Town and WPA hardsurfaced it.

-----Continued on Back Page-----

A GOOD SHOW

(By Special Reporter)

On Saturday evening, December 11th, at 7 o'clock, the members of the Tryon Country club are giving a unique entertainment, at the club. A delicious supper will be served in a setting which will remind you of all sorts of places mixed together. In other words, here will be "Atmosphere". During supper, your emotions will be played upon until you may find yourself inspired to participate. However, nothing is required of you. If you are able, you will be privileged to remain a detached spectator. After supper, a scintillating cabaret show will be staged for you. And after that, if you wish to remain to dance to phonograph music, you will be welcome to do so and provision will be made for this.

The purpose of this entertainment is none other than to offer the community a good time. We have no ulterior motive—this is no "drive."

The charge for the whole evening—supper, show, incidental entertainment — is 75c a person. Owing to the nature of the entertainment and the size of the club, we must necessarily limit the number of reservations we can make and all reservations will be closed by Thursday night, Dec. 9th, unless for some unforseen reason it has not been possible to get your reservation in before that time and we are still able to accommodate you.

When you know that Mrs. M. B. Flynn is the chairman of the Cabaret and has called upon some

-----Continued on Back Page-----