Amos Wright

Landrum, Dec. 7.—Amos Wright of Landrum died this morning at 2:10 a. m., at the home of his son, W. F. Wright, with whom he was making his home.

Mr. Wright who had been in declining health for a year, suffered a stroke of paralysis Monday morning.

He was born in Cleveland county, N. C., near Shelby, and lived in the Pleasant Grove church community most of his life. He was a member of the Pleasant Grove church before coming to Landrum about three and one-half years ago. Since coming to Landrum he had united with the First Baptist church.

Mr. Wright is survived by one son, W. F. Wright, owner and operator of the Landrum Casket company; one daughter, Mrs. Leila Melton, Boiling Springs, N. C.; ten grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m., at Pleasant Grove Baptist church near Shelby, N. C., with the Rev. C. B. Prince, pastor of Landrum First Baptist church, assisted by the Rev. M. W. Lever, pastor of the Landrum Methodist church and the Rev. Mr. Washburn, pastor of the Pleasant Grove Baptist church, officiating. Burial will be in the church by the side of his wife who died several years ago. Pallbearers will be W. S. Heavner, Cleve Carpenter, Juline Carpenter, Therman Dempsey, W. M. McKinney and B. T. Thomson.

After 8:30 a. m., Wednesday the body will be at the home of his son, W. F. Wright, in Landrum.

Basketball Season Opens On Friday

The Tryon high school opens up its basketball season on Friday night when Campobello high invades the local court. The visitors have been practicing for quite a long time since it is the only sport they have and will bring an accomplished team here. The Tryon boys, in excellent physical condition after a hard football season, will be ready with a fast, speedy quintet. Three of last season's regulars, Blackwell, Green, and Foster will be missed. With Jones, football captain, the two Beatson brothers, and about a dozen others out, the team will be able to give plenty of action. The girls have a much improved sextet over last year's team and can hold their own.

The game will start at 7:30 with the girls opening. The remaining schedule for the year, includes some outstanding teams which the public will enjoy watching.

The schedule follows:

- Dec. 10—Campobello at Tryon.
- Dec. 14—Sunny View at Tryon.
- Dec. 17—Etowah at Tryon.
- Jan. 5—Cedar Springs, (pending.)
- Jan. 7—Hendersonville at Tryon.
- Jan. 14—Landrum at Tryon.
- Jan. 18—Flat Rock at Flat Rock.
- Jan. 21—Columbus at Tryon.
- Jan. 25—Green's Creek at Green's Creek.
- Jan. 28—Cedar Springs, (pending.)
- Feb. 1—Columbus at Columbus.
- Feb. 4—Saluda at Tryon.
