Headlines

Nine persons burned to death in Knoxville tenement fire today.

Japan demands surrender of Nanking by noon Friday. 240,000 Jap troops await order to charge if China refuses to give in.

Spanish government troops beat back rebels in battles on two fronts.

Coldest weather so far is predicted for Asheville tonight when the thermometer is expected to drop to 3 degrees. Snow covered the entire northern half of the country, and it is 26 below in Wyoming.

Dates Changed

In order to accommodate other parties the date of the Pine Crest Inn dance has been changed from December 29th to December 27th, the Oak Hall-Pine Crest Inn annual Christmas Dance will be held at Oak Hall on Wednesday, Dec. 22. This will be an invitational-subscription affair with the proceeds going to the Helping Hand. Al Dunn's orchestra has been secured for this event. Miss Rachel Jackson and Nelson Jackson, III, will give a dance on Dec. 29th in honor of Miss Betty Chapman of Spartanburg. Other parties and events will be put in the schedule as soon as dates have been set.

Dyer at Rotary

H. L. Shelnutt will be in charge of the Rotary club program on Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall hotel. The Rev. Rolla Dyer, retired Episcopal minister and cabinet-violin maker, will be the guest speaker.

TRYON'S SONG: H. B. Kelly, who "hotels" by night in Tryon and banks by day in Hendersonville, is an apt student in learning the language and theme song of the Thermal City in the "fogless, frockless, snowless, freezeless belt."

The Hendersonville thermometer registered the season's official low of five degrees when the banker-hotel man was asked about Tryon's climate.

"It dropped to 18 last night," he said with a smile.—Hendersonville Times-News.
