

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, DEC. 10, 1937

Student President

MISS ELIZABETH LANDRUM

* * * *

The above picture of Miss Elizabeth Landrum of Landrum, S. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Landrum, was sent to the Bulletin by Coker college officials. Miss Landrum, who is a sister of John G. Landrum, Jr., of the Tryon Bank & Trust company, is a Senior at Coker college, Harsville, S. C., where she is president of Coker College Student Body, and has been selected by the faculty as the most outstanding student for Who's Who's of college students. Besides being an excellent student Miss Landrum is endowed with a charming personality.

Clothing Wanted

Gifts of warm clothing for distribution by the Red Cross to needy families are urgently requested by Mrs. George Cathey, Chairman of the Home Service Committee. Many families are suffering from cold and children's coats and sweaters in the smaller sizes, if provided, will prevent much distress and possible sickness. All garments should be left at the Blue Ridge Weavers. If it is impossible to deliver them at the store, calls will be made for them on request.

C. ARTHUR LINCOLN,
Chairman Polk County Chapter.

Miss Mary Moore

Miss Mary Moore, age 75, died Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock at her home in the Pea Ridge section of Polk county after an illness of sometime. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at the home with interment in the family cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Lucas will officiate. She was a member of a prominent Polk county family and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. M. Brian and Miss Winnie Moore of Pea Ridge, and many nieces and nephews, among them being Jim Moore, of the Ballenger company in Tryon.

Warmer weather for this section is promised for Saturday. Pennsylvania had an 18-inch snow yesterday. Snowplows dug thru seven-foot drifts in upstate New York. Florida fruit growers keeping smudge pot fires going to save fruit crop.