Kiwanis Plans for Christmas Events

The Tryon Kiwanis club made plans today (Tuesday) noon at Hotel Tryon for its annual Christmas events. Names were drawn. Each Kiwanian will give another Kiwanian a toy present next week. After the fun over the presentation the toys will be turned over to the welfare committee for distribution to the less fortunate children. Christmas baskets will be distributed to a number of needy families to give added cheer on Christmas Eve. J. N. Jackson is chairman of this committee and is receiving contributions from the members and any others interested.

ARIZONA, NEW MEXICO AT THE PARISH HOUSE

Colored moving pictures of Arizona and New Mexico taken in September by Scout Executive R. M. Schiele, will be shown on Saturday night in Tryon at the Parish House at 7:30 at the Polk County Boy Scout Court of Honor. The public is invited. The meeting date was changed from Friday to Saturday on account of conflicts.

DIVIDEND DECLARED

The Tryon Federal Savings & Loan Association has put into the mails this week $1,400 in 4 per cent dividends sent to investors in the local association who may enjoy the benefits of their savings at Christmas time. Approximately forty shareholders are participating in the dividend which is free from all Federal taxes and does not have to be reported on the income tax report.

Abrams to Run for Court Clerk Office

D. M. Abrams, prominent Green Creek farmer of Rutherfordton, route 2, stated to a reporter of the Bulletin today (Tuesday) that he would be a candidate next spring for the office of Clerk of Superior Court to succeed the present incumbent, John A. Arledge, who announced recently that he would not be a candidate for reelection. Mr. Abrams is an ex-service man, having spent a year in France. He is a native of Polk county, a deacon in the Sandy Plains Presbyterian church, and has taken an active interest in public affairs the past few years. He was foreman of the grand jury two years ago, a candidate for county commissioner in the last election and has served on the county cotton program committee. He stated that he would make his formal announcement next month.

Walter Stephenson To Entertain Tryon Young Men's Club

Walter Stephenson of Saluda, Polk county's big league baseball player, will give a talk and show some pictures of some interesting scenes of the big leagues on Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the Tryon Young Men's club room. The public is invited.
