

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, DEC. 16, 1937

"CURB" REPORTER

Don't forget to notify the Bulletin of your guests during the holidays. . . . The Asheville Citizen this morning had an attractive picture of Miss Edna Hague and the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Nelson Leonard of Tryon. Miss Hague, is a graduate of Asheville Normal where she was a popular president of the Student Government and a leading speaker on the debating team that successfully opposed many colleges in the South. . . . Avant Electric Co., has brought to TRYON another new wrinkle—a FRIGIDAIRE RANGE. Is this blowing hot and cold? . . . Japanese admiral who ordered bombing of American ships, to lose command. Maybe the Japs will find some other way to promote Buchanan's, Missildine's, Peeler's, . . . Ballenger-Jackson Co., Slack's, are today's Bulletin advertisers with attractive Christmas windows. . . . Mrs. K. A. Bowen is in Hendersonville while her brother is gone to an Atlanta hospital for an operation. . . Travel news! The Walter Hills are going north for the holidays. . . The J. C. Kimberlys are spending Christmas in Neenah, Wis. . . See the Grand Canyon in colored movies taken by Scout Executive R. M. Schiele at the Parish House Saturday night, 7:30. . . Prof.

Continued on Back Page

A Real Treat for Polk Folk Saturday

Beautiful colored motion pictures of Arizona and New Mexico will be shown on Saturday night at the Parish House to the people of Polk county who attend the Polk County Boy Scout Court of Honor which starts promptly at 7:30. Scout Executive R. M. Schiele of the Piedmont Council took these pictures in September and they will be interesting to all who like travel and beautiful scenery. A number of citizens and boys from Mill Spring and Saluda are planning to attend. Anyone anywhere in the county is cordially invited.

Paper Chase

The Tryon Riding & Hunt club wishes to launch the Christmas vacation with a paper chase Sunday afternoon. We hope everyone will meet at Pine Crest at three o'clock.

—Mrs. Sam Bingham, Jr.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—Middle America slipped about its business today on a glaze of ice and snow.

From western Pennsylvania to Iowa, hazardous traffic conditions slowed every form of transportation.

Highways and streets were coated, reducing automobile traffic to a minimum. Hospitals through the area reported heavy emergency demands for pedestrians who fell on slick sidewalks.

Notify the Bulletin of your holiday guests.