"CURB" REPOKTER

Lieut.-Commander Arthur Rembert, who is visiting his sister and brother here, is an officer of the U. S. ship Idaho, the home ship of Jennings Ford, Tryon boy in the Navy. Commander Rembert said that Jennings was in his division and that he had been read-Jennings' Tryon Daily Bulletin.

. . . WARNING! Police Chief Hague Kiser reports that it is against the law to shoot fireworks in the city limits of Tryon and that all violators caught doing it will be fined . . . Reservations for the Tryon Horse Show are now being made. One visiting guest who left town for the holidays paid the $12 for a box reservation. This morning, Horse Show Secretary C. J. Lynch received reservations for six horse stalls from E. B. Hale of Morristown, Tenn., who has shown in the Tryon Horse Show every season for the past several years. The show will not be held until April but some people want to be sure of getting a good selection . . . The Mt. Industries have a holly border around their ad today. A&P taking a page, too, and Reddy Kilowatt is advertising Mixmasters. Kell is offering suggestions in furniture . . . Some people have to make hay when the sun shines, but weather makes no difference to the service of Rector's laundry with its mod-
