

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 22, 1937

Christmas Tree Program K. Beatson Health House

An interesting Christmas Tree program is being arranged for the Katharine Beatson Health House to be held on Wednesday, December 23rd, at 2 p. m., at the Katherine Beatson Health House under the direction of Miss Irene Clark, the county nurse, assisted by Miss Agnes McLeod, home demonstration agent.

Tonight

The annual Oak Hall-Pine Crest Inn dance will be held at Oak Hall hotel. It is a benefit affair for the Helping Hand and everybody in the community is invited. Admission $1 couple. Al Dunn's orchestra furnishing the music.

Christmas tree program of the First Baptist Sunday school will be held at 7:30 tonight. Public invited.

Tryon Town boys and girls basketball teams will go to Columbus to play the Columbus teams tonight at 7:30.

Caution !

In the interest of public safety the Fire department wishes to issue its usual holiday don'ts:

Don't take for granted your tree wiring is safe. Be sure that it is.

Don't erect tree near fireplaces.

Don't use candles on tree.

Don't leave tree up too long after Christmas. It dries out and is highly inflammable.

Don't burn package wrappings except in stove or other closed apparatus.

Toys And Story Were Kiwanis Features Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis club held its annual Christmas Toy presentation on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Hotel Tryon. Each Kiwanian gave another a toy which will later be given to less fortunate children. Much merriment was enjoyed in presenting the gifts. A feature of the program was the telling of an interesting and impressive Christmas story. $65 has been raised among the members to send Christmas cheer baskets of food, fruit, candy, etc., to needy families on Christmas Eve.

Mrs. McGuinn, Sunny View, Died On Tuesday Night

Mrs. L. B. McGuinn, 70, widow of the late L. B. McGuinn, of Sunny View community, died Tuesday night. Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 1 o'clock at Cane Creek Baptist church with the Rev. Mr. Allman, officiating. The deceased is survived by one son, J. M. McGuinn, of Mill Spring, and four daughters, Mrs. Sue Byers of Sunny View, Mrs. Myrtle Tony, Mrs. Hannah Stepp and Mrs. Pearl Hoffman, all of Hendersonville. Mrs. McGuinn made her home in Tryon for a number of years and was beloved by all who knew her.

Theatre Opens Tomorrow

The remodeling of Tryon's Theatre will be completed tomorrow. The theatre will definitely open on Friday with "The Firefly", starring Jeanette McDonald and Alan Jones for a three day run. There will be no advance in admission prices.