

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, DEC. 28, 1937

Celebrates 80th Birthday

Professor Lewis Sayre Burchard celebrated his 80th birthday Monday. Many telegrams and cards from old friends in his home, New York City, and relatives in Boston. New friends in Tryon made him feel their real friendliness when about 20 of them came to surprise him with their wishes in the afternoon. Reverend and Mrs. Pinckney were away and sent a telegram and Dr. George Taylor was away. Those who came to call on him were: the Misses Pitkin, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kilpin, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. William Howell, Mrs. Frances Williams and her friends, Miss Lord of Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, Dr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Lincoln, Rev. and Mrs. Rolla Dyer, Senator and Mrs. F. P. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Whittlesey, Judge and Mrs. Thomas Brown and sisters, the Misses Ferris, of New York.

Mrs. Mary Lyons Crowe

Landrum, Dec. 27.—Mrs. Mary Lyons Crowe, wife of the late Dr. W. A. Crowe of near Atlanta, Ga., and aunt of the Rev. J. Sproles Lyons, Presbyterian pastor here, died last Thursday at her home.

Funeral services and interment were in Marietta, Ga., Sunday.

Surviving are two sons, Walter and Arthur Crowe; one daughter of New Haven, Conn.; one stepson of Baltimore, Md.; one brother, Dr. J. Sproles Lyons, pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian church of Atlanta; and one sister, Mrs. Ralph I. Izard, of Richmond, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyons, of Landrum attended the funeral.—Spartanburg Herald.

"CURB" REPORTER

Now let's see what we can put in the Bulletin today. No serious news reported at St. Luke's hospital. No births, no deaths, no marriages, no business transactions, no fires, no accidents, no new people moving in, none moving out. Just a lull between Christmas and New Year. Or is it that peace on earth and good will to all that you wished for on your greetings this year . . . We are having London weather,—foggy, but the homes are still full of the Christmas spirit of cheerfulness, with parties, Christmas trees, colored lights and other decorations. . . . And isn't it a lot of fun to look over the Christmas cards again . . . Greetings from Anne Bosworth Greene from Summer-ville, S. C., who is changing her Bulletin from Vermont to Colony Gardens, Beaufort, S. C. . . . Joey and Dan Merwin are spending six months with their daddy in Jamaica . . . George and Salley Cathey gave Broadus Ballenger a big surprise. They sent him a large box for Christmas. He spent a lot of time unwinding the contents until finally he reached a little wooden banty rooster about an inch high, made by the Tryon Toymakers . . . Members of Tryon Country club gave Pro Larry Brooks a nice cash Christmas present . . . The Tryon Kiwanis club changes officers to—
Continued on Back Page