

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N C., THURSDAY, DEC. 30, 1937

Job Finder Here

The North Carolina State Employment Service has moved Polk county from the Rutherfordton branch to the Hendersonville branch. Mr. J. O. Wells, manager of the Hendersonville branch, was in Tryon today interviewing people who have filed for jobs and he will be in Tryon every Thursday afternoon from 2 to 3:45 to assist employees in getting jobs and also to help employers find workers of every qualifications. He will be at Saluda on the same days from 11 a. m., to 12:45. The Employment Service is linked up with similar agencies all over the state and when a person is looking for a good cook, maid, butler, waiter, editor, lawyer, clerk, mechanic, he can get his choice of a large number of people registered with the Employment service. If such a person is not available in this territory they can get in touch with the right man anywhere in the United States.

"CURB" REPORTER

This is really a space filler today. And it has to be so flexible that the printer can use one inch or all of it as the need appears. . . . Hinton Thompson has gone deer hunting again . . . The heaviest frost you ever say crystallized on Tryon last night, but by

Continued on Back Page

Chas. B. Edwards, Sr.

Charles B. Edwards, Sr., 69, prominent farmer of Lynn, died this morning about 12:30 at his home after several days' illness following a stroke. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 at Friendship Baptist church near Saluda. Funeral will be conducted by the Rev. Malcolm Ross and Rev. A. T. Howard. The deceased is survived by his widow, the former Miss George Ella Rhodes; two sons, Charles, Jr. and J. Bryan, of Lynn; and five daughters, Mrs. Janie Laughter, of Saluda; Mrs. Katherine Thompson of Asheville; Mrs. Hattie Skinner of Columbus; Mrs. Pauline Gibson and Mrs. Annie Stepp, of Lynn; also one sister, Mrs. George Foster, of Columbus. He had large family connections throughout the county.

FEDERATION MANAGER WILL BE PROMOTED

Announcement has been made by the Farmers Federation that Claude Fisher, manager of the Tryon branch store, will be promoted to Asheville to take charge of the wholesale department of the Farmers Federation. Mr. Fisher has been manager of the local unit for several years and has won a number of prizes for the conduct of the business here. He is a member of the Tryon Board of Commissioners and is active in fraternal organizations. He will be succeeded on January 15th by William Francis of the Carolina Hatcheries, Greensboro, N. C., who at one time was stationed at the Tryon warehouse for a short period. He will be assisted by Bill White.