LETTERS

A number of interesting letters have been received at the Bulletin office presenting the views of the tourists in regard to the mill situation. The Bulletin wants to give both sides of every question but it was too expensive for us to carry on the discussion in this matter, and many fine letters have to be omitted. Anyone desiring to carry on the discussion must do so at his own expense. A number of the homebuilders of Tryon have requested us to print the following letter from Mr. Bingham because it presents their views, too:

To the Editor:

Possibly too much has already been written about the proposed silk hosiery mill for Tryon, but so many different viewpoints have been aired, and so many misapprehensions voiced that I am inclined to think that the main issue has been lost in the fog of words, and that those who should understand and appreciate each other are farther apart than ever.

May I say that in the first place, I believe that if more people had talked, as I have, with the man who initiated the movement to bring a new industry to Tryon, there would be more understanding and less apprehension. I am quite certain that this man has only the best interests of Tryon as a whole in mind, and that it is far from his idea to invite, or encourage any industry to locate here if it is deemed harmful or undesirable by the residents or tradespeople. He is a man who truly appreciates Tryon as
